

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE COMMUNITY MESSAGING – DAVENTRY

ISSUED: 06/05/09

This is a message from Northamptonshire West Police to all Watch Groups. Northamptonshire Police is launching a new non-emergency telephone number today Wednesday 6 May. The new number for all non-emergency calls to the Force will be 03000 111 222 and will be the new single countywide telephone number to call Northamptonshire Police for all non-emergency matters. People can call 03000 111 222 at any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The existing telephone numbers will be gradually phased out but will still connect to the police until people get used to the new number. Calls from any network will cost no more than those to 01 or 02 numbers and can be used as part of inclusive minutes packages, such as those in mobile phone contracts, and incorporated in 'friends and family' type discounts. People can also call 03000 111 222 when they need to speak to their local Safer Community Team or to seek advice on any police matter. We are continually trying to improve our service and respond to the needs of our customers. The new number will not only be easier for people to remember, but it can also cost less for them to contact the police for assistance, wherever they are calling from. Ofcom has specifically set aside the 030 range for public bodies and not-for-profit organisations and we were keen to make the move to the new number, with the associated benefits for our customers, as quickly as possible.

People should only call 999 in an emergency, when a life is at risk or a crime is in progress.

All other calls for police assistance or advice should be made to 03000 111 222.
